PRESIDENT'S REPORT

It is with pleasure I welcome members to the forty-fourth Annual General meeting of The Australian Davis Cup Tennis Foundation and in doing so I present to you for consideration and adoption the Annual Report of the Foundation incorporating the audited financial statements as at 30 June 2015.

Nick Kyrgios, Thanasi Kokkinakis and Sam Groth continued their introduction into Davis Cup competition; joining Lleyton Hewitt, Bernard Tomic and Chris Guccione and these young players hopefully form the basis of our next generation of Davis Cup players

In September we played Uzbekistan in Cottesloe, Perth, in a World Group Play-Off and were victorious 5/0. In March our Davis Cup team travelled to the Czech Republic for a World Group 1st Round matches and won the tie 3/2. This win resulted in a place in a World Group Quarter Final home tie against Kazakhstan in Darwin in July 2015.

For both Perth and the Czech Republic a number of members took advantage of travel, accommodation and ticketing arranged through the Foundation in conjunction with Bentleigh Travel. It is pleasing to see the support of the ties by a dedicated group, in their gold t-shirts who enjoy the security of this type of group travel.

I take this opportunity to congratulate Switzerland led by Roger Federer who defeated France 3/1 to become Davis Cup champions in 2014. Roger kindly donated some of his tennis clothing and a racquet for our Davis Cup Luncheon Silent Auction. We thank Roger for his generosity.

On Friday 30 January, 2015 the Foundation conducted the annual Members' AO Luncheon in the Members Dining Room at the Melbourne Cricket Ground and we continued to focus on a theme of celebration of significant Davis Cup victories. A gathering of 327 members and guests celebrated the 56th anniversary of the 1959 Davis Cup victory, played at the West Side Tennis Club, New York when Australia defeated the United States 3/2. We thank the Herald Sun for compiling the informative booklet on the event which has become a collector's item.

Fred Stolle, 1965 French open singles and 1966 US open singles champion and now a noted Media personality was the MC and the special guests were the surviving team members in that tie. Fred was supported on the microphone by Leon Weigard.

Roy Emerson, Rod Laver and I joined Fred Stolle on stage and entertained the guests with commentary on the tie, especially the interesting journey through 6 Davis Cup ties in 3 countries over 7 weeks to win the Davis Cup back for Australia.

Also in attendance at the luncheon was the legendary Frank Sedgman, Ken Rosewall, Ashley Cooper, Tony Roche, Rex Hartwig, recently appointed Davis Cup Captain Wally Masur and Grand Slam champion Lleyton Hewitt along with a significant number of former Davis Cup players including Pat Cash, Dick Crealy, Allan Stone, Ray Ruffels, John Alexander, Mark Woodforde, Geoff Masters, and Jason Stoltenberg.

A guided tour of Melbourne Park was conducted for members and guest during November, when we were able to view the recently renovated Margaret Court Arena, the Davis Cup Room and the players facilities.

In May in accordance with the Constitution Cedric Mason was elected Vice President to replace Graeme Williams who retired from the Board. Our Director and former Honorary Secretary Graeme Cumbrae-Stewart was recognised by Tennis Victoria for his significant contribution to tennis as a former Vice President of Tennis Victoria and was duly elected a Life Member. Alan Cobb continued as Company Secretary and Robert Jamieson as Honorary Treasurer and it is expected the staff and all fellow Directors will benefit from their knowledge and experience.

Access to priority tennis ticketing for the Australian Open, the Davis Cup and the Australian Open Series events in Brisbane and Sydney continues to be important benefits to our members.

We are indeed fortunate to have a dedicated administration supporting our objectives and they continued their good work with Judy Pullyblank, supported by Robert Parker contributing to the efficient service given to members. The Board also is appreciative of the support Judy receives from her husband Alan. Robert is supported in his role by the Treasurer Robert Jamieson and together this team has brought expertise to the Foundation in financial, marketing, events and IT, and jointly has improved communications to our members through our web site, eNews and regular Newsletter, resulting in considerable cost benefits.

The Foundation recorded a small net surplus for the financial year after a distribution of $50,000 to Tennis Australia. We continue to support our aims as we move forward in what can be seen as a period of consolidation and tight financial controls during somewhat difficult times. I look forward to your continued support of our endeavours.

Finally, I acknowledge the continuing support of all the Directors and I thank them for their on-going contribution and look forward to the continuing support of the various endeavours we undertake and the implementation of future plans complimentary to the objectives of the Foundation, as we move forward into what can perhaps be seen as a period of consolidation and a little change.

APIA INTERNATIONAL, SYDNEY 2015

Malcolm Bergmann, our Membership Officer in New South Wales, reported significant members' interest in the Apia International event, played in Sydney during early January, with an ever increasing number of applicants for the complimentary tickets which Tennis Australia has once again made available for the benefit of our Members who reside in this State.

BRISBANE INTERNATIONAL 2015

Once again, members living in Queensland have taken advantage of the "Priority Access" booking facility offered by Tennis Australia, by ordering their tickets for this event on-line through Ticketek, before they officially went on sale to the general public.

APPRECIATION

Our President, Neale Fraser, continues to provide inspirational leadership and it is appropriate that we should place on record our admiration of his dedication to tennis, particularly Davis Cup tennis and importantly in his role as Chairman of our Foundation. The attendance of former players at our AO Luncheon is an indication of the high esteem these players place in our President.

We also acknowledge the efforts of Malcolm and Glenice Bergmann who continue to work so assiduously to allocate and distribute approximately 600 complimentary tickets for access to the first or second days' play in the APIA International 2015.

We are grateful to Ian Jane for his continuing interest in the welfare and enjoyment of all who participate as a member of his much sought after touring parties that are especially tailored for the Davis Cup ties being played overseas, this year in the Czech Republic, along with the arrangements for the September interstate Davis Cup tie in Perth.

NOTES ON THE DRAW FOR THE DAVIS CUP COMPETITION

Extract from the regulations governing choice of ground:

Regulation 22. Choice of Ground.

(a) Choice of ground shall be determined in the following sequence:

- (i) If the previous tie between the two Nations was played on neutral ground, choice shall be decided by lot (see regulation 19 (a)).
- (ii) If the previous tie between the two Nations was not played for any reason, choice shall be decided by lot.
- (iii) If one Nation has been entitled to choice for its tie with another Nation in the 1970 Competition, or in any later Competition, the latter shall have the choice on the occasion of the next meeting with that Nation.

If this is not applicable, then

- (iv) Choice shall be decided by lot (see regulation 19 (a)).

(The foregoing will not apply in the next tie between Australia and India).

FORMAT FOR DAVIS CUP

With 114 years of tradition behind it, the Davis Cup by BNP Paribas is the premier team competition in tennis. The symbol of this prestigious competition is the beautiful silver Davis Cup trophy, donated by Harvard student Dwight Filley Davis in 1900. It now consists of four pieces; the silver Trophy and three wooden bases (total weight over 200kg).

In the early years, only two nations competed for temporary ownership of the Davis Cup trophy, the United States and the British Isles. Before the first World War, France, Belgium Austria, Australasia, Germany and Canada had joined the USA and Britain in competing for the Davis Cup.

The Davis Cup is a recognised institution in tennis. It will be as influential in the 21st century game as it was instrumental in the growth of tennis from 1900 until the present day. The simplicity of its Nation vs. Nation format has provided a framework for one of the most successful competitions in sporting history.

From its inception, Davis Cup has attracted all of the top Australian players. Rafter, Hewitt, Philippoussis, the Woodies, Stoltenberg and Arthurs are all modern day members of a century old club whose legends include Sir Norman Brookes, Gerald Patterson, Jack Crawford, Frank Sedgman, Lew Hoad, Ashley Cooper, Neale Fraser, Rod Laver, Roy Emerson, John Newcombe, Pat Cash and Lleyton Hewitt, all winners of the greatest Grand Slam Event of them all – Wimbledon.

Each tie consists of five matches, four singles and one doubles, played over three days. On the opening day, the number two singles player for each nation plays the number one player for the opposing nation. On day two, the crucial doubles match is played. On the final day, the number one players face each other in the opening match while the number two players meet in the fifth match. All are played over best-of-five-sets with no tie break in the fifth set.

The pinnacle of the Davis Cup competition is the World Group. Sixteen nations are drawn against each other in a knock-out format leading up to the Davis Cup by BNP Paribas Final. Nations that have gone on to win the Davis Cup title include the United States, Australia, Great Britain, France, Sweden, Germany, Czech Republic, Italy, South Africa, Russia, Spain and Croatia. Each year's World Group competition is made up of four rounds, scheduled throughout the year, culminating in the Davis Cup Final played in late November/early December.

Below the World Group, there are three regional zones, the Euro/African, Americas and Asia/Oceania Zones, in which Group I, II, III, and IV ties are played. The goal is to move up group by group until the World Group and possibly the title is achieved.

The eight winners of Zonal Group I competition are drawn with the eight World Group first round losers in September's World Group Qualifying Round. Stakes are high as the winners will go on to compete in the World Group in the subsequent year. In the 2014 Davis Cup competition, 122 nations participated from Zonal Group IV through to the elite World Group.

Prize money was introduced to the Davis Cup competition for the first time in 1981, when the NEC Corporation joined the competition as its Title Sponsor. In 2002, BNP Paribas took over the Title Sponsorship. BNP Paribas is joined by three international Ancillary Sponsors – NH Hotels and Adecco – in supporting the Davis Cup competition on a worldwide basis.

Directors have been in office since the start of the financial year to the date of this report unless otherwise stated.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVITY

The principal activity of the company in the course of the financial year was that of promotion, development, encouragement and assistance to Australian tennis players.

The company's short-term objective is to:

- Continue to promote the development of tennis within Australia by funding the development of young Australian tennis players showing Davis Cup potential, by direct player or official team assistance or providing financial support for selected Player Development Programs conducted by Tennis Australia.

The company's long-term objective is to:

- Be a sustainable entity, striving for improvement, with the necessary financial structure to continue support of young Australian tennis players.

To achieve these objectives, the company has adopted the following strategies:

- A policy to maintain, promote and develop initiatives to retain a vibrant membership base.
- Providing the membership with the opportunity to support Davis Cup tennis through fellowship, priority access to event ticketing arrangements and merchandising initiatives.
- By reviewing and enhancing member benefits and improving communications to ensure that the long term membership and financial objectives are sustainable.
- To encourage members to have some proprietorship in the company as committed supporters of Davis Cup tennis in Australia.

RESULTS

The net surplus of the company for the financial year after distributions to Tennis Australia was $5,160 (2014 surplus $20,579). No provision for income tax was necessary.

NOTES TO AND FORMING PART OF THE ACCOUNTS FOR THE YEAR ENDED 30TH JUNE, 2015

NOTE 1: SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The financial statements are general purpose financial statements that have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards (including Australian Accounting Interpretations) and the Corporations Act 2001. The company is a not-for-profit entity for financial reporting purposes under Australian Accounting Standards.

Australian Accounting Standards set out accounting policies that the AASB has concluded would result in financial statements containing relevant and reliable information about transactions, events and conditions. Material accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these financial statements are presented below and have been consistently applied unless stated otherwise.

The financial statements, except for the cash flow information, have been prepared on an accruals basis and are based on historical costs, modified, where applicable, by the measurement at fair value of selected non-current assets, financial assets and financial liabilities. The amounts presented in the financial statements have been rounded to the nearest dollar.

(a) REVENUE AND EXPENDITURE

Subscription income is brought to account on a cash basis. Revenue from grants and interest receivable is recognised on an accrual basis. Expenditure is brought to account on an accrual basis.

(b) INCOME TAX

No provision for income tax has been raised as the entity is exempt from income tax under Div 50 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997.

(c) PROPERTY, PLANT AND EQUIPMENT

Each class of property, plant and equipment is carried at cost or fair value as indicated, less, where applicable, accumulated depreciation and any impairment losses.

Depreciation

The depreciable amount of all fixed assets is depreciated on a straight-line basis over the asset's useful life to the entity commencing from the time the asset is held ready for use.

The depreciation rates used for each class of depreciable assets are:

Class of Fixed Asset	Depreciation Rate
Office Equipment	30%

(d) CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at-call with banks, other short-term highly liquid investments with original maturities of twelve months or less and bank overdrafts. Bank overdrafts are shown within short-term borrowings in current liabilities on the statement of financial position.

(e) GOODS AND SERVICES TAX (GST)

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST, except where the amount of GST incurred is not recoverable from the Australian Taxation Office (ATO).

Receivables and payables are stated inclusive of the amount of GST receivable or payable. The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO is included with other receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are presented on a gross basis. The GST components of cash flows arising from investing or financing activities which are recoverable from, or payable to, the ATO are presented as operating cash flows included in receipts from customers or payments to suppliers.

(f) ACCOUNTS PAYABLE AND OTHER PAYABLES

Trade and other payables represent the liability outstanding at the end of the reporting period for goods and services received by the company during the reporting period which remain unpaid. The balance is recognised as a current liability.

(g) FINANCIAL ASSETS

On initial recognition financial assets are recognised at cost.

All financial assets are classified as financial assets at fair value through profit and loss and are held for trading and short term profit taking. Such assets are subsequently measured at fair value with changes in the carrying amount being included in the profit and loss.

NOTE 2: RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

No transactions between related parties were conducted save for services provided by directors at no fee.

INDEPENDENT AUDIT REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF THE AUSTRALIAN DAVIS CUP TENNIS FOUNDATION

Report on the Financial Report

We have audited the accompanying financial report of the Australian Davis Cup Tennis Foundation (the company), which comprises the statement of financial position as at 30 June 2015, the statement of comprehensive income, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows for the year then ended, notes comprising a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information, and the directors' declaration.

Directors' Responsibility for the Financial Report

The directors of the company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial report based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Those standards require that we comply with relevant ethical requirements relating to audit engagements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial report is free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the financial report. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the financial report, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the company's preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by the directors, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the financial report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Independence

In conducting our audit, we have complied with the independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

Opinion

In our opinion, the financial report of the Australian Davis Cup Tennis Foundation is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- (i) giving a true and fair view of the company's financial position as at 30 June 2015 and of its performance for the year ended on that date; and
- (ii) complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.
